

RMIT PE

This week the RMIT PE program began. The children loved participating in all the different skill based activities. These are run by the students from RMIT University who are working towards their teaching degree. We are so excited to learn all the different skills that will be taught this term!

