

Year 1 Writing Mascots

We have begun taking home our class writing mascots. Our mascots get to go and visit the student's homes for one night, join in with their afterschool activities and eat dinner with them. The students then create journal entries from the class mascot's point of view.

