

★ science ★

Solids and Liquids

In Science this term the year 3 students are learning about solids and liquids. During one of our experiments, students had to use their creativity to design a container that will keep an icy pole from melting. It was so much fun!

